Online Freelance Writer/Examiner

Write what you know!

At Life Coachers International, we are seeking passionate people with a desire to share their knowledge with others. Spanning a multitude of subjects, Examiners are writers who come from all walks of life that contribute unique and original content to entertain, inform, and inspire their readers. Examiners are credible, passionate, and knowledgeable local influencers. How would you like to be the online “go to” person with thousands of people reading what you have to say about a subject you are passionate about? If this intrigues you, then you definitely want to learn more about Examiner.com.

Launched in the 1990’s, you will be writing for websites that receive upwards of ¼ Million Unique Hits Per Day! We currently serve several major national markets, and plan to go international by the end of 2009.

Most Examiners have full-time or part-time jobs, or are full-time or part-time students. Examiners choose what to write about and when. This opportunity provides the flexibility to work from home and set your own schedule. We ask Examiners to keep their homepage current, which usually means publishing a minimum number of brief articles per week depending on the topic.

If you have an entrepreneurial spirit there are additional revenue streams including an exciting referral program.

Don’t worry if publishing online is new to you. Examiner.com provides all of the Examiners with the training and tools needed to publish as well as promote their articles. Access to these platforms help Examiners grow their audience and brand as well as provide a forum where they can connect with other Examiners.

What an opportunity to have your work posted on some of the largest and most visited websites around!

Each project lasts 12 Weeks, with interns 3 - 5 hours of their time each week, often virtually. This opportunity is flexible enough to work around the schedule of your full-time studies.
